

EXHIBITION CO-CURATORS

Mohammad Gorjestani
Founder of EVEN/ODD

---

Mohammad Gorjestani is an Iranian born filmmaker, visual artist, and creative director. Working across and between fiction and non-fiction forms, his projects examine the dissent and excellence of cultures who despite colonialism, imperialism, and institutional racism, extraordinarily exist.

Neil Hamamoto
Founder and Artistic Director of WORTHLESSSTUDIOS

---

Neil Hamamoto is a visual artist and Founder and Artistic Director of the nonprofit WORTHLESSSTUDIOS, an East Williamsburg based organization that helps visual artists turn their dreams into realities.

Klaudia Ofwona Draber
Curator and Founder of KODA

Klaudia Ofwona Draber is the founder of KODA—a social practice residency for mid-career artists. In her curatorial practice she focuses on social justice, e.g., post-colonialism, neocolonialism, identity, land and environment, and racial justice.
