

Iggy Capra is an artist and writer based in Hudson, New York. Recent solo exhibitions include Lust for Life at Hit Gallery, San Francisco; and SEASONS GREETINGS at Et al., San Francisco.

Minami Kobayashi (b.1989 Japan) is a Japanese artist who is currently based in London. She makes figurative egg tempera and oil paintings which combine intimacy and mystery through their depictions of ordinary people, animals, and places that seem vaguely surreal and ever so slightly off-kilter.

She has had solo exhibitions at Goldfinch (Chicago) and had a duo show with Patrick Proctor at Frestonian Gallery (London), and had exhibited in group shows at Tokyo Metropolitan Museum, Setouchi International Triennale 2019 (Japan), Stems Gallery(Belgium), Dinner Party Gallery(London), Western Exhibitions (Chicago), Dongdaemun Design Plaza (South Korea), and numerous other venues.

Tyler K. Ormsby lives and works in San Francisco, CA. His artworks take shape through various mediums, emphasizing painting, drawing, and ceramics. Ormsby has previously exhibited work at galleries and institutions such as House of Seicko, Ratio 3, New Sun Room, and the Watari Museum of Contemporary Art in Tokyo, Japan.